

The new film "Die Gstettensaga: The Rise of Echsenfriedl", directed and produced by Johannes Grenzfurthner in Austria, is an apocalyptic Don Quixote like adventure of two misfits exploring our cyberpunk phuture after the devastating google.com atomic war. Doctor Who, Mad Max and rock opera comedy film elements shot with excellent motion picture photography, will be shown around North America & Europe at various film festivals and hacker cons this summer including the Phuture Conference in Denver Colorado October 11th, 2014.
