

JE SUIS AUTO

Premiere in April 2019 / Press release

We are happy being able to announce that we will premiere our new social science fiction comedy film Je Suis Auto as early as April 2019.

Directed by Johannes Grenzfurthner and Juliana Neuhuber, the film features Star Trek: Deep Space 9 legend Chase Masterson in the title role of "Auto" – and Johannes Grenzfurthner himself as a very nerdy pirate in search of meaning.

The film is our entertaining take on issues such as artificial intelligence, politics of labor, and tech culture.

Other characters are portrayed by fine folks like Florian Sebastian Fitz, Boris Popovic, textfile.com's Jason Scott, and Aaron Hillis. And a big shout-out to wonderful cameo appearances by Chris Lohner, Eva Billisich and Joesi Prokopetz.
